Peron Vows Crackdown On Church-Burning Mobs

Blames Reds, Denies Feud With Religion

By Roman Jimenez

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, June 17 (AP)—Argentine President Juan Peron tonight threatened to crack down on free-roaming mobs who looted and burned Catholic churches in the bloody Thursday revolt in Buenos Aires.

The Argentine strong man, in a broadcast filled with tremulous appeals for calm and order, blamed Communists for the attacks on the churches and insisted his feud with the Roman Catholic hierarchy was not against religion.

"We are not fighting religion. We have always said that," he declared in his 13-minute broadcast to the Argentines.

156 To 360 Killed

Federal police announced 156 persons were killed in the brief ill-starred revolt staged almost solely by the Argentine navy and its air arm. Wounded totaled 846, of whom 96 were in grave condition, the police said. But the independent Buenos Aires newspaper La Nacion said to have reported 360 deaths.

Uruguayan airfields near Montevideo were hosts to 39 Argentine rebel navy planes. The traditional Uruguayan haven for Argentine exiles had given refuge to 122 Argentine naval air officers and men.

Though Peron claimed that the revolt was smashed, the continued shutdown on normal communications with the Argentine capital caused suspicion that there were lingering pockets of die-hard resistance.

A broadcast heard in Montevideo tonight, claiming to be from a clandestine Argentine rebel radio, reported naval forces had risen against the government in three cities.

Mobs Fire Churches

The first eyewitness account of the revolt received since the shutdown in communications said mobs set fire to nearly every Catholic church in downtown Buenos Aires.

This account, by the Reuters correspondent in Buenos Aires, said, "The night air of the city was glowing red with fires started by groups who first broke into Roman Catholic diocesan headquarters next to the cathedral and set it afire. They then entered the cathedral, destroyed all they could lay their hands on."

The U. S. Embassy in the Argentine capital estimated that seven churches in all were attacked.

The Reuters correspondent's account of the fighting said about 1,000 were wounded in the air bombings of Government House, which contains the offices of Peron, the Treasury, the headquarters of the pro-government General Confederation of Labor and other buildings.

Bombs Miss Targets

One bomb, intended for Peron's personal residence at Palermo, on the outskirts broke most of the windows of the British Embassy.

Poor visibility apparently accounted for the fact that many of the bombs missed their prime targets and did wide property damage in the center of the city.

Experts Battle To Snuff Out 125-Foot-High Gas Well Fire

RENOVO, Pa., June 17 (AP)—A team of experts worked against the clock today in an effort to snuff out a natural gas well fire that has been burning at a well near here for 24 hours.

Workmen estimated some 5 million cubic feet of the colorless, flammable gas is being consumed hourly in a brilliant column of flame, 30 feet thick, reaching 125 feet into the air.

The fire began yesterday with an explosion that injured 10 men and shook up at least 25 more. All but 2 of 5 men admitted to the Renovo Hospital with burns have been discharged.

The capping valve on the well, with an estimated production of 150 million cubic feet of gas a day, blew off early yesterday morning.

Ten hours later the highly flammable material had covered a 10 square mile area.

Workmen said a diesel tractor near the well apparently sent out some sparks that touched off the fire.

Employees of the New York State Natural Gas Corp., Pittsburgh, and employees of two other firms have

Three American Officers Expelled By Soviet Union

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—Russia has expelled three American Army officers attached to the American Embassy in Moscow on the ground they were involved in improper activities, informed sources said today.

The three men — a lieutenant colonel and two captains — are understood to have already left the Soviet Union.

Open Way For Retaliation

The Russian move struck a discordant note in Moscow's current peace offensive and opened the way for retaliation by the United States against Soviet diplomats here and in New York.

It came as the latest maneuver in a diplomatic feud between Russia and the United States which has seen several diplomats on each side expelled on charges of espionage.

The Americans involved in the latest incident were reported to be Lt. Col. John S. Benson, assigned to Moscow about 10 months; Capt. William R. Stroud, an embassy attaché for 15 months; and Capt. Walter Mule who had been in Moscow 27 months. All three were assistant Army attaches.

When the story broke today, the State Department refused to make any official comment. Officials appeared upset because a reporter learned about it.

Reliable informants, however, reported the three Americans had been declared persons non grata — a diplomatic phrase which means they are no longer acceptable in the Soviet Union.

In the past, Russia and the United States both have resorted to this diplomatic move whenever they want to force the departure of anyone suspected or accused of spying on them.

In the last such case, July 3, 1954, Russia expelled two Americans — Lt. Col. H. Feichlin, an assistant attaché; and Maj. W. McKinney. They were charged with seeking to perform espionage work, an activity "incompatible with their diplomatic status." The State Department categorically denied Russia's charge.

Russia Retaliated

The department said at the time that Russia's move actually was retaliation against the United States for forcing the departure earlier in 1954 of three Soviet diplomats alleged to have engaged in spying.

Ike Calls For Peace Prayers

EMERGENCY PRESS HEADQUARTERS, Operation Alert, June 17 (AP)—President Eisenhower rang down the curtain on Operation Alert, 1955 today with a call for peace prayers, better Civil Defense organization and quick approval by Congress of his military reserve program.

Speaking from a secret command post away from Washington, Eisenhower said he derived "great encouragement" from lessons learned in the vast Civil Defense exercise — one that saw more than 50 cities theoretically wiped out and 15,000 government people actually evacuated from the capital before it was "bombed to radioactive rubble."

Praised By Sparkman

During the debate preceding ratification, Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.), floor manager for the treaty in the absence of Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Foreign Relations Committee, said the treaty makes Austria "a bastion of freedom extending into eastern Europe."

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont.) told the Senate he hopes full-fledged membership in the United Nations for Austria will follow as "she is entitled to that right."

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) termed the treaty a "milestone on a road to peace" and Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) called it a "milestone in American diplomacy."

Doesn't Restore Sovereignty

But Sen. Jenner said the treaty does not restore Austrian sovereignty at all. He contended it refuses Austria full rearmament rights, rules out military alliances, and makes it impossible for Austria to "abolish subversive organizations out to destroy" her.

"How can this Senate be a party to ratifying such a treaty?" Jenner asked. He added it was not a question of simply "just to Austria" but of "the security of the United States."

Ship Owners, Seamen Agree On Pay Plan

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—An East Coast seamen's strike was gradually dissolving today under an agreed-on principle of a guaranteed wage plan.

There was no immediate relaxation of the tie-up of two-score ships from Texas to Maine. However, there was peace on one front in the contract battle and a promise of peace on the others.

The strike of 28,000 CIO National Maritime Union sailors early Thursday had threatened to snarl American-flag transatlantic passenger service at the peak of a record tourist year. However, no passenger liners were in position to be struck before the weekend.

By a voice vote, NMU members approved a contract agreement today with operators of East and Gulf coast liners and freighters. It was expected that 37 tanker firms might soon fall in line.

However, the 28,000 NMU members were told not to sail any ships until three smaller unions also come to terms with the shippers. Little difficulty was anticipated in that area, however, since the NMU is the pattern-setter in the field.

The other unions involved are the CIO Marine Engineers, the CIO Radio Operators, and the AFL Masters, Mates and Pilots. Together they have about 5,000 members.

Big 3 Set Sights On Peace Goal

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—The Western Big Three ended two days of high-level talks today with the expressed hope that "much can be achieved" in the coming months toward "the goal of peace."

A joint communique issued by the American, British and French foreign ministers, after laying plans for the heads of state "summit" meeting with Russia at Geneva July 18, said:

"On the threshold of the 10th anniversary of the founding of the United Nations, the foreign ministers are confident that the common policies which they and their Allies have successfully pursued in the past will provide the foundation for further progress in the settlement of outstanding problems."

Hope For Achievements

"They are hopeful that with persistence much can be achieved in the coming months towards the goal of peace with freedom and justice to which they and the members of the United Nations are dedicated."

The foreign ministers conferred at their final session with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and reportedly gave him a free hand on his forthcoming trip to Moscow.

A spokesman said the ministers had full confidence in Adenauer and made no attempt to impose any pre-conditions on his visit.

The date of the trip, in response to a Soviet invitation, was understood to have been discussed, but, if decided upon, was not disclosed.

It will follow the Four-Power "summit" meeting.

Adenauer lunched with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay before joining in their talks at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

The communique, which Adenauer was said to have endorsed informally, said plans were discussed for consultations in Paris with members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, prior to the Geneva talks.

Ezra Stone Lands In Clink After Fuss On Train

NEWARK, N. J., June 17 (AP)—Ezra Stone wound up today in the sort of comical situation he used to get into as radio's teen-aged Henry Aldrich.

He found himself in the clink because the Pennsylvania Railroad didn't run according to script. One of its trains was behind schedule, as Henry himself used to be when he shouted, "Coming Mother."

Stone informed the train conductor that "he could punch my ticket 45 minutes late" because "the train was 45 minutes late."

Only a few minutes later as he waxed oratorical, the 37-year-old Stone and his wife were put under arrest by a railroad policeman on charges of creating a disturbance.

Taken to police headquarters, Stone first was unable to post bail, but later arranged for a bondsman to put up $50 for their release.

Police Prepare To Handle Large Crowd At Parade

REGULAR BOROUGH police and volunteer Civil Defense patrolmen will direct traffic in Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg today during the Four-County Firemen's parade. The parade is scheduled to start at 2 p.m.

Patrolmen will be stationed at all important intersections in both boroughs. C.D. patrolmen will direct traffic at important traffic arteries and intersections in outlying regions in the two towns.

A "spaced march" system has been worked out for the parade. This method, according to police, will aid greatly in the rapid movement of traffic through the boroughs.

Each division will be separated by a distance of approximately one block, according to Stroudsburg Police Chief James McConnell. McConnell said that this spacing will allow traffic to move north and south across Main St. while the parade is in progress.

Residents of both boroughs are urged to leave their cars at home where possible, to ease the expected traffic congestion. Thousands of persons are expected to drive from out-of-town points to witness the parade.

Stroudsburg police announced that parking on Main St. is prohibited from noon until after the parade passes.

In East Stroudsburg all parking has been strictly prohibited on Washington St. from Washington to the Post Office building; Crystal St., S. Crystal St. and Brown St. during the time the parade is in progress.

The parade leaves Fifth and Main St., Stroudsburg marches to East Stroudsburg where it will proceed up Washington to Courtland St. and then to the Post Office, down Crystal St. to the State Bridge, then down Brown St. to the interborough bridge and back to Stroudsburg.

In Stroudsburg the parade moves up Main St. to the Stroudsburg playground where it will be dismissed. A reviewing stand will be set up in front of the former Montgomery Ward Store on Main.

An estimated 4,500 persons will march in the parade. The number of units is expected to exceed 100.

Bipartisan Unit To Study Employee Security Program; Heated Controversy Develops

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—A Senate committee voted unanimously today to create a special commission to study the Eisenhower administration's employee security program. Meanwhile charges of "rottenness" in the program were aired before another committee.

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) said approval of the commission by the Government Operations Committee was "one of the most significant developments in the field of security" in the past decade.

He added "Congress will at long last have an opportunity to bring order out of confusion" in the controversial program.

At the same time Louis J. Lyell, fired as a security investigator for the Small Business Administration, told a Senate Civil Service subcommittee its hearings on the security program will be "a revelation of rottenness."

Barnes Contradicts Charges

But Wendell S. Barnes, head of the SBA, said Lyell and another ousted investigator "mocked the truth" in their testimony blasting the SBA security program as grossly unfair.

Lyell testified his reports on employee investigations had been falsified by higher officials to make out stronger cases against employees.

He and Clarence E. Clarke, another former SBA investigator, charged many employees were forced out of their jobs unjustly. Lyell said the program was conducted with "total disregard" for the rights of individuals.

The resolution approved by the Government Operations Committee would create a 12-man commission to study and report on all aspects of the security program by Dec. 31, 1956. Although the decision was reported as unanimous, Sen. Mundt (R-SD) withheld his vote.

The resolution still must pass the House and Senate before it can take effect.

George Samok New President Of Association

PALMERTON WAS selected as host for the 59th annual convention of the Four County Firemen's Assn. in June, 1956, at the 58th annual meeting held yesterday in the Stroudsburg High School auditorium. The new president is George Samok, of Palmerton.

The convention yesterday was attended by more than 200 members and delegates, Raymond Rodgers, of Northampton, of the credential committee reported. There were 127 members and 69 delegates registered.

Millard A. Marsh, Stroudsburg fire chief and president of the Four County Assn., presided. He appointed Clarence Stem, chief of the Wilson Borough Dept., and Kenneth Werkheiser, Stroudsburg, as sergeants-at-arms for the meeting.

Moment of Silence

The session opened at 10 a. m. with singing of America with Miss Ruth Fetherman, accompanist and prayer by Rev. Robert H. Krauss, of Hellertown, chaplain. A moment of silence followed in memory of departed members.

President Marsh presented Hal H. Harris, chief burgess of Stroudsburg, who welcomed the members and urged they come back to the borough soon.

Further words of welcome were expressed by President Marsh, who on behalf of the Stroudsburg convention committee, presented the association with a check for $100 to be devoted to the death benefit fund of the organization.

The nomination and election of officers for the coming year followed with the election of Mr. Samok as president.

Other Officers

Also elected were: First vice president, Russell Nevil, Stroudsburg; second vice president, Nevin Fritzinger, Cementon, Lehigh County; third vice president, Charles Bonner, Nesquehoning, Carbon County, and fourth vice president, Joseph Grigg, Bangor, Northampton County.

Additional officers follow: Secretary, J. Allison Everitt, Stroudsburg; treasurer, Kline S. Werner, Lansford; chaplain, Rev. Robert H. Krauss, Hellertown; trustee, five years, Roland S. R. Walker, Catsaqua; Palmerton was the unanimous choice of the convention for the 1956 meeting.

Memorial services in memory of 12 members who had died since the last convention held at Jim Thorpe, Carbon County, followed in charge of Rev. Krauss. The invocation was given by Rev. Francis Barrett, of St. Matthew's R. C. Church. The Scripture was read by Rev. Roger C. Stinson, pastor of the First Stroudsburg Methodist Church. The benediction was pronounced by Rabbi William Fierwerker, of Temple Israel.

Music was provided by the mixed chorus of the Stroudsburg High School. They presented two groups of selections, "Eternal Life," Dunagan, and "Let Us Break Bread Together," made up the first group (Please turn to Page 5)

Weather Outlook 'Warm And Dry'

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—The Weather Bureau said today its 30-day outlook for mid-June to mid-July calls for temperatures to average above seasonal normals over the northern half of the nation. Subnormal rainfall is indicated over the northeast quarter.

The Home Economics students of the local high school chaperoned by their instructor and supervising principal, Mrs. Marian Mackes and Harry T. Young, are spending a few days at Penn State University.

Eatons Leave Tomorrow Afternoon On First Leg Of Journey To Church Mission In Japan

REV. HAROLD C. Eaton, pastor of the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church, and his wife, will leave tomorrow for participation in the Centenary Special Mission to Japan.

Mr. Eaton will preach in the morning service which is to be held at 10:30 a.m. The Father's Day sermon will be on "When A Man's A Man." At the close of the service a brief farewell will be given by the pastor.

Their itinerary is as follows: Their plane leaves LaGuardia Airport at 4 p.m. Sunday, they will arrive in Chicago at 6:30 p.m. where they will be joined by the other 24 pastors who are participating in the mission. At 1:30 a.m. Monday all but two members of the group will leave enroute for Seattle, one stop will be made at Minneapolis where another member of the group will join them and at Faro, N. D., where the final member will be picked up.

The stop at Seattle is for refueling. From Seattle the plane will leave for Anchorage arriving there at 12:30 p.m. Monday. One day and a half will be spent in Anchorage where members of the mission group will participate in services in the churches in Anchorage. The Eatons will be met by Rev. Charles Mahlor, a Methodist missionary of Seward, Alaska, and will be driven by him to visit the Methodist mission at that place.

The final leg of the journey to Tokyo will begin at 2:30 a.m. Wednesday. The DC-6 in which the mission group is transported will stop at Shemya for refueling and for coffee and doughnuts where that American breakfast article is for sale at the greatest cost of anywhere in the world. From Shemya the flight is to Tokyo where they will arrive at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday (Tokyo time).

Approximately eight days will be spent in Tokyo in orientation and planning, after which the Eatons move to their field of labor, Tajima in Kuchishima-Ken Prefecture, where for eight weeks they will be in charge of the mission station to be strengthened there.

Rev. Edwin Sawyer Named To Serve As Interim Pastor

DURING REV. AND MRS. Harold C. Eaton's absence, because of their participation in the centenary special mission to Japan, the pulpit of the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church will be occupied by Rev. Edwin A. Sawyer, of Winston Salem, N. C.

Rev. and Mrs. Sawyer and their three children will be presented to the congregation in Rev. Eaton's farewell service tomorrow at 10:30 a.m.

The Sawyers are already well known among the summer folk who vacation at White Heron Lake. Here during the past summers, Mr. Sawyer and his family have organized and directed a Sunday-School which has met each Sunday in one of the cottages on the lake which has grown to an average fifty boys and girls and older people.

Rev. Sawyer is the chaplain at Salem College, a Moravian church-related college in Winston Salem, where his work is both educative and directive in the field of the spiritual life of that institution. Rev. Sawyer received his B.S. and his M.A. from Lehigh University, and later his Ph.D. from Moravian Seminary. He is completing his work toward his Ph.D. at Columbia University this summer.

Rev. Sawyer's first sermon will be preached from the East Stroudsburg Methodist pulpit this Sunday at 7:30 p.m. He has chosen as his theme, "A Cycle of Worship" built upon the vision of Isaiah as recorded in the prophecy of Isaiah, the sixth chapter.

Methodist Guild Holds Outing

THE WESLEYAN Service Guild of the Stroudsburg Methodist Church held its first picnic of the season Thursday night at the Stroudsburg playground.

After the supper Mrs. David Toms, newly elected president, read some letters which had been received.

Sermon Topic Announced By Rev. Wohlson

"A BIG Opportunity" will be the theme of the sermon to be presented by Rev. P. N. Wohlson, D.D., at St. John's Lutheran Church on Sunday at 11 a.m.

Miss Ruth Fetherman, who was recently awarded the $1,000 Kintner award at Stroudsburg High School, will serve as organist. She plans to continue her studies in music in the fall. The Senior Choir under the direction of Richard Lindroth, choirmaster, will sing an anthem.

Franklin Buck will serve as acolyte, while Martin A. Vogel, Harry Clifton, Arthur Bossard and Elwood Granacher will serve as ushers. Flowers will be placed by Gilbert Barthold as a memorial to his parents. The nursery will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Buck.

Vespers have been dispensed with during the summer months. Church school will be conducted at 9:45 a.m.

Lesson-Sermon Topic Given
"IS THE universe, including man, evolved by atomic force?" is the subject of the lesson-sermon to be read at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural selections from the King James Version of the Bible stress the supremacy of spiritual power and include the account of Christ Jesus feeding the multitude as recorded by Matthew (14:14-20) and John's account (6:16-21) of Jesus walking on the sea.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" will be read the following: "God never ordained a material law to annul the spiritual law. If there were such a material law, it would oppose the supremacy of Spirit; God, and impugn the wisdom of the creator. Jesus walked on the waves, fed the multitude, healed the sick, and raised the dead in direct opposition to material laws."

Services will be held at 11 a.m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Stroudsburg.

215 Registered In Bible School
TANNERSVILLE—The Vacation Bible School of Sunday School Association of Monroe County, District 3 opened here Monday.

Presbyterian Executive Guest Speaker

REV. GORMAN Roof, Presbyterian executive of Lehigh Presbyterian will be the guest speaker at the East Stroudsburg Presbyterian Church tomorrow at 11 a.m. His topic will be "The Man Who Has Seen God."

Rev. Roof was pastor for several years at Cataqua before accepting his present position recently. Mr. and Mrs. Roof now live at the Brainerd Center, Snyderville.

Walter Schlough, organist, will direct the choir in two anthems. The host and hostess are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cramer. Mrs. George Warner will take care of the nursery.

The Father's Day church school worship service at 9:45 will be led by the three boys' classes under the direction of their teachers, Elwood Smith, William Hay and Loring Cramer. Each father will be given a floral tribute from the boys.

Luncheon Meeting
The Ariston Bible Class will hold a covered-dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ashton Burrows, 940 King St., Stroudsburg, Tuesday at 1 p.m. This will be a reunion of past and present members. The Women's Auxiliary will gather for its June meeting at Brainerd Center with the Esther Circle as hostess at a covered dish luncheon at noon. Mrs. Paul Dellaria assisted by Mrs. Jesse Flury will be in charge of the program.

A preparatory service for the summer Communion will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in charge of Rev. Luther Markin of the Delaware Water Gap Presbyterian Church.

The Lord's Supper will be observed next Sunday, June 26. The deacons serving for the month are Nelson Cramer, Paul Dellaria, Wilbur Pope and Charles Staggs.

Rev. Stimson To Speak On 'Father-Son'
FATHER'S DAY will be observed in the Stroudsburg Methodist Church Sunday at 11 a.m. with the pastor, Rev. Roger C. Stimson speaking on the theme "From Father To Son."

Mrs. Edith Metzgar will play three organ selections as well as direct the Senior Choir in two anthems. Mrs. Samuel Lee and Miss Diane Lee will be in charge of the Nursery. Flowers are given by Mrs. Martha J. Bonser and children in memory of her husband; by Mrs. M. H. Selwood in memory of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. N. L. Peck and by Mrs. Mildred Hamill and son in memory of Daniel P. Hamill.

The vesper service at 7:30 p.m. will be built around the theme "The Unexpected Christ." Mrs. Katherine Stiff will offer three organ selections.

Vacation School Dates Announced
THE CHERRY Valley Charge Daily Vacation Bible School will convene on June 27 at 9 a.m. in the Cherry Valley Church, and adjourn on July 8. More detailed information will be given later. Rev. C. Clyde Levergood said.

Salvation Army To Conduct Graduation Exercises For 90 Pupils Sunday Night

A GRADUATION SERVICE for the 90 members of the Vacation Bible School, Salvation Army Citadel will be held at 7:30 p. m. Sunday in the Citadel.

Mrs. Doris Baker was the director of the school. Both morning and afternoon sessions were held with lunch time at noon. Members of the different departments will be heard during the service Sunday night.

The Citadel band will play special music and the Songsters group will sing. Capt. Charles Baker, corps officer, will present diplomas to the students. His topic for the graduation speech will be "Now."

Assistants in the direction of the Bible School were Mrs. Mary Van Why, Shirley Nelpert, Ramona Thek, Shirley Counterman, Lucy Counterman, Bertha Kille, Violet Thek, Joan Dunlap, Mrs. Frank Sargent, Mrs. Marie Stitzer, Mrs. Minerva Sargent, Mrs. Mary Sefass and Capt. Baker.

In addition to the 90 students slated to receive diplomas there were 24 other children enrolled in the school. Friends of the students and their families are urged to attend the graduation exercise. Capt. Baker said last night. The Salvation Army is a Red Feather agency of the Monroe County Community Chest.

Sunday School Lesson

Scripture—11 Chronicles 36; II Kings 23.

By Newman Campbell
THE OBSERVANCE of the Passover had been neglected in Judah for many years, although it was supposed to be observed annually. Now under the good King Josiah, it was celebrated as never before in Judah. We read: "And Joseph kept a Passover unto the Lord in Jerusalem: and they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month."

Josiah told the Levites that taught all Israel, to put the holy ark "in the house which Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel did build; serve now the Lord your God, and His people Israel."

The ark had evidently been removed, presumably during the extensive repairs of the temple. The Levites were not to bear the ark on their shoulders as was usual. They were to attend strictly to the ministrations in the temple and its worshippers. They were to kill the Passover (sacrifice) and sanctify themselves and "prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the Lord."

The people were to divide themselves that "for every distinct family among the people who came to the Passover there should be a portion of a Levitical family to minister."—George Rawlinson.

The king was most generous. "Furnishing the paschal lambs and goats for the whole number of the people, the 'princes' could only have given them cattle for thank offerings." Lambs and kids were permissible Passover offerings, except by the very poor.

"So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's command." Everything was done according to the order prescribed in the Pentateuch.

The priests separated from the remainder of the paschal lambs those parts which were to be burned on the altar, that is, the feet, the kidneys, etc. These parts they gave to the officers, who took them up to the altar and handed them to the officiating priests."—George Rawlinson.

"And they roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance; but the other holy offerings (and feet) they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people."

Try to make this scene very clear to the children—whose imaginations are usually very keen. The great temple with different groups of people here and there, with the Levites taking their portion of the delicious meat.

Memory Verse: "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord."—Psalm 122:1.

DADDY CAN FIX ANYTHING

The tremendous faith of a child in his father!
To the conscientious father it is frightening, indeed. And, to the conscientious mother, equally frightening is her child's trust in her.

It takes something more than love and good intentions to live up to the expectations of our children. We need a strength and wisdom and tenderness that do not come automatically with the responsibility of parenthood.

God provides, and the Church instills in our lives, the spiritual gifts which our parenthood requires. We were meant to cultivate these qualities, for with every challenge God offers us adequate resources.

And our children will grow as we grow in the Christian faith, for the most obvious truth in the world is that a child wants to be like his Mother and Dad.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Welcome To Four County Firemen Must Include Pledge Of Even Great Support

Today, after disposing of their serious business affairs which included a memorial to those who died during the past year, hundreds of Volunteer firemen from four eastern Pennsylvania Counties, Monroe, Carbon, Lehigh and Northampton will proudly display hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of fire fighting equipment they use to protect your home, your life, your investments.

They will mix this parade display with some fun. The citizens of the Stroudsburgs and the remainder of the Pocono Mountains have an obligation of welcome and comradeship which we are sure will be heartily extended to these men.

There are times when we take the word "Volunteer" too lightly. That is especially true in the case of Volunteer Firemen.

In their case it means:

That these men give up countless hours of the time many of us use for our own selfish relaxation. That they drop their activities, be it pleasure or work, the minute the alarm sounds to speed to your home, your factory, your place of business. That they risk the lives, their clothing and practically all they have in the exercise of their duty to save property and lives. That they spend countless non-fire-fighting hours to perfect their knowledge and skills in such complicated matters as hydraulics, friction losses, scientific attacks on all types of combustible materials with which they must be so thoroughly familiar they can instantly confine a fire at its source to prevent heavy losses. That they spend many other hours on fund raising projects to buy, or help buy, the modern fire fighting equipment used to protect you and your property.

In recent years, these Volunteer Firemen, have entered a newer field—the field of Civil Defense fire fighting. Here the importance stretches far beyond the bounds of regulation fire protection.

They stand as a bulwark against the fires of an atomic or H-bomb attack. And here again, they give up countless hours for study, training and trial work against the complicated fires created by such attacks.

All this is a completely "Volunteer" service. They receive not one penny. They are dedicated as no other group is to their work.

Let us be thankful then for men who are Volunteer Firemen.

Our reward, inadequate as it is, is to welcome these men heartily, and pledge ourselves to something better than the laggard support we have given them.

Legislators Should Be Concerned With Performance On More Important Measures

Somehow or other, the impression prevails throughout the state that our brave solons on Harrisburg's Capitol Hill might better have devoted more time to essential legislation rather than to have been so preoccupied with passing bills devoted to raising their own pay and increasing their retirement benefits.

The first bill gave them $3,000 in expense allowance, which is not taxable for income purposes, to add to their $3,000 salary. Then the Senate voted another act whereby members of the General Assembly could retire at the age of 50 years, a privilege not accorded other state employees until they reach the three-score mark.

Whatever else one might call it, this is special legislation. And special legislation is not one with which the general public is especially charmed.

George Sokolsky Says...

West Will Find Krushchev Very Astute Politician If He Shows Up At Geneva

As the date, July 18, approaches for the "At the Summit" Conference, at Geneva, it is impossible not to dwell on Yalta, which set the pattern for such meetings of the mighty.

We do not know what happened at Yalta; that is still secret. Yalta must be in the minds of President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, when they play down the significance of the forthcoming conference and seek to limit it. They seem to say to the American people, "Do not expect too much."

Yalta was a picky meeting at which pragmatic gentlemen determined the course of history for perhaps a century without the lodestar of public or private morals. They did what they did. That is all.

Professor G. F. Hudson of Oxford describes it this way:

"... The problem for the historian is to discover the assumptions, motive and calculations in the minds of those who came to these decisions, and in this respect the policy of the British representatives at Yalta is considerably less intelligible than that of either the Soviet or the American leaders. It is fairly plain what Stalin wanted—which was in the main identical with what he got. The aspirations and purposes of Roosevelt are somewhat less clear, but there is a great deal of evidence on his state of mind at the time, and given the extraordinary delusions which he cherished with regard to the nature of the Soviet regime, his general attitude at Yalta affords no cause for astonishment. Churchill, on the other hand, appears to have had a far better understanding of the trend of events in Europe, and in view of the fact that British interests at stake there were much more at stake than American in the continental balance of power, the British position in the Yalta negotiations is indeed hard to comprehend."

Churchill once explained to me his difficulty in these words:

"We were a dependent people." As one reads the published version of the Yalta Conference, it would appear that Roosevelt united with Stalin against Churchill, and Churchill was helpless because his country was at war and these were his allies. He might have walked out of Yalta in protest, but what would have become of his country which was in a state of siege, protected by the United States? So he stayed and signed. He may even have been ashamed. Who knows?

At Geneva, Eisenhower will have to deal either with Bulganin, the No. 2 man of the Russian hierarchy, or Khrushchev, the Boss. Bulganin will be correct in his conduct, carefully briefed, functioning according to instructions. Should Khrushchev come to Geneva, Eisenhower will meet an astute politician who worked his way up from a miner in the days of Stalin when living was dangerous. Those who view Khrushchev as a clown because of his pursuit of those things which come naturally to him, in Yugoslavia, and who therefore think him weaker than the dour, smileless Russians whom they have heretofore encountered, appraise the man incorrectly.

Khrushchev could not have moved up through all the impediments and road blocks of Russian political life, in the time of Stalin, were he not astute and tricky and sure of foot. Had it been otherwise, he would have lost his head. Those who survived the purges are men who struggled toward the sun and got there despite all attempts to keep them down. From a Marxian standpoint, they are the survival of the fittest.

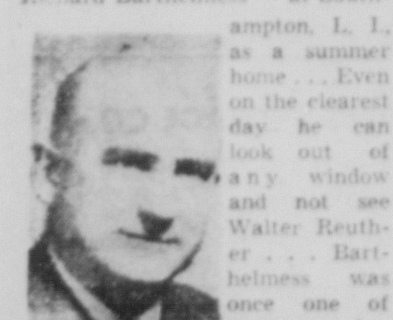

Khrushchev is different from others in that he reached the summit not by political selection or accident but by his own genius in the manipulation of the Communist apparatus. Stalin's heirs were Malenkov, Beria and Molotov. Where are they now? Beria was caught maneuvering and was killed. Malenkov was reduced to the lowest position in the Presidium, but was permitted to live because he accepted blame for errors that Khrushchev made. Molotov has been reduced to a nonentity and is about to be retired to the noble role of an elder statesman.

Khrushchev found it necessary to have only one of those who stood in his way killed. The other two he handled with gentle astuteness. But he did handle them and he reached the top. Maybe one of the purposes of the Yugoslavia visit was to draw to the outside world who is the Boss, lest some mistake title for reality.

The Once Over

—by H. I. Phillips

Henry Ford II has bought the 1,000-foot waterfront estate of Richard Barthelmess — at Southampton, L. I., as a summer home. ... Even on the clearest day he can look out of any window and not see Walter Reuther. ... Barthelmess was once one of America's most famous movie stars. ... Henry Ford II is no thespian but his recent performance in the CIO Theater Company's "Desperate Hours" or "Kitty on a Hot Tin Roof" was adequate. ... The estate is called "The Dunes" but Ford may want a new title. ... something like "Respite Lodge."

... The first few days of relaxation must be positively unrelaxing. ... Just sitting around realizing that the birds and bees work without blueprints, model changes, hassles, etc.; and that the flowers come in the same colors year after year. ... There must be a certain annoyance to realize

"Ride's End." "F. O. B. Heights" "Between Parleys" or "Hank's Hideaway."

The place is directly on the Atlantic and the breakers pound so loudly Mr. Ford can't hear a CIO dispute. ... When he takes a swim he knows he can swim out to the raft without finding a group there with a new wave demand. ... We wonder what an auto tycoon does on a vacation. ... It must be difficult to shake off the Detroit tempo and get from the production line mood to the one of complete relaxation. ... The first few days of relaxation must be positively unrelaxing. ... Just sitting around realizing that the birds and bees work without blueprints, model changes, hassles, etc.; and that the flowers come in the same colors year after year. ... There must be a certain annoyance to realize that a view of the Atlantic can't be enhanced by pressing a button and raising the porch by electricity. ... Can Mr. Ford escape a mood at Southampton when he will occasionally gaze at the sea, grow impatient at the failure of the surf to keep its waves at peak production and start wondering why high tide can't be produced every six minutes instead of every six hours? ... Wigwam won a race at Belmont and we assume it was so close all the contestants could have been covered by a tent. ... Jabneh, third in the recent Belmont, is owned by Tallulah Bankhead's sister. ... Ridden by Tallulah, the skinner would have won. ... Marilyn Monroe plays "Seven Year Itch" as if she thought the malady was scarlet fever. ... A movie company has found a way to telecast two images simultaneously. ... Our set has been doing that for years. ... It is okay with us provided we don't get a double-commercial. ...

THAT OLD SWEETHEART OF MINE!

See O. K. For Eisenhower Changes In Refugee Law

Washington—Chances are that President Eisenhower will get most of the changes that he wants Congress to make in the refugee relief law to speed entry into the United States of escapees from behind the Iron Curtain.

However, the President will run into a tough battle on some of the proposed revisions. The most controversial suggestions are to eliminate the requirement for a two-year history on each applicant and to waive the bar on admission of tubercular persons.

Rep. Francis Walter (D), Pennsylvania, already has served notice that he will lead a fight against these two proposals as well as other changes requested by the President.

On the repeal of the two-year history requirement, Walter will get strong support from legislators concerned with the subversive problem. They claim it's needed to keep Communists out of the country.

Many members of Congress feel that the United States should not lower its health requirements for immigrants. While some agree with Mr. Eisenhower that tuberculosis is not a major threat now, such a waiver might open the way for relaxation on other diseases.

Farm Price Supports—The showdown vote in the Senate over Democratic proposals to restore 90 per cent of parity price supports on "basic" farm commodities probably will be delayed until next year.

Chairman Allen J. Ellender (D), Louisiana, of the Senate agriculture committee, has indicated that he wants hearings, to cover other aspects of the farm bill. Earlier Ellender declared he thought the present flexible support system—which went into effect for the current crop year—should be given a "trial."

Observers note a political undertone in the Ellender maneuvers. For one thing, it is certain if Congress should pass a rigid price support bill, President Eisenhower would veto it. Ellender's plan to review the whole farm problem could result in additional less controversial items in the overall farm bill—making a veto more difficult for the President.

A veto of a measure favored by many farmers would carry more political repercussions if it came during a presidential election year.

Below Zero—Adm. Richard E. Byrd, who will lead a new United States expedition to Antarctica, says that he once recorded a temperature of 100 degrees below zero while at the South Pole. This is the coldest temperature ever recorded, exceeding by some seven degrees the previous record which was noted in Siberia.

Byrd's disclosure was made in a radio interview with Rep. Frank T. Bow (R), Ohio. The famous explorer said that it is 15 degrees colder at the bottom of the world than at the top.

Byrd said his expedition hopes to explore the land near the South Pole where, he explained, there is an area as large as the United States which has never been seen by a human being.

Byrd's seventh trip to the South Polar regions will get underway late this year.

Robert S. Allen Reports

Douglas, Kilgore Discover Testimony Proofs Missing

Surprises—Senators Paul Douglas (D., Ill.) and Harley Kilgore (D., W. Va.), who want to slash airline subsidies, have run up against a mystery. It is the baffling disappearance, from the page proofs of the printed hearings of the Senate Appropriations Committee, of their highly critical testimony against these multi-million dollar subsidies. Virtually all of the caustic charges against the airlines made by Kilgore and Douglas have disappeared from the page proofs. Among Kilgore's disclosures was a $13,000,000 "tax windfall"; that is, the airlines got $13,000,000 from the Civil Aeronautics Board to pay the taxes they owe the government; also that CAB doesn't audit airlines' subsidy claims until several or more years after they have gotten the money.

An unusual incident climaxed the Senate's unexpected enactment of the Democrat's public housing bill, which calls for three times as much government-supported construction as proposed by President Eisenhower. After the Democratic bill had been approved, a group of senators took the floor and lauded the party leaders of the chamber—Democratic Lyndon Johnson, Tex., and Republican William Knowland, Calif. Both have been under fire; Johnson on the ground he is too pro-Eisenhower, and Knowland because he is too anti-Eisenhower. But Senators Hubert Humphrey (D., Minn.), Wayne Morse (D., Ore.), Paul Douglas (D., Ill.), acclaimed Johnson for his vigorous liberal leadership, and Knowland for his fairness and courtesy. Both party chiefs were "clearly surprised by the warm praise from this group of militant New Dealers. The unique incident got no press attention, but it has caused a lot of intrigued discussion in political quarters.

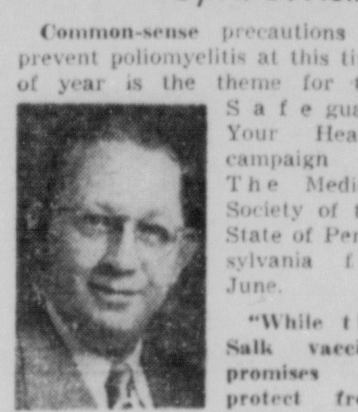

Flashes—The showdown this week in the House Banking Committee on the demand of Representative Wright Patman (D., Tex.) for an investigation of the Open Market Committee of the Federal Reserve Board is a straight-out partisan clash. The White House is opposed to the probe, while Democratic leaders are pushing it. A vote was scheduled in the Committee last week, but at the last minute Democrats called it off because several of their members failed to return from out-of-town trips. ... Bachelor Senator Henry Jackson (D., Wash.) frankly admits he is in love with the niece of Senator William Langer (R., N.D.) and would like to marry her, but hasn't succeeded in persuading her as yet. "I have trouble even dating her," he says ruefully. ... Top Pentagon authorities are reading a comprehensive Intelligence study which attributes former Premier Malenkov's downfall largely to his insistence on limited military and economic aid to Red China. Malenkov contended that was necessary to ease strains on the Soviet economy, but violent Chinese and other opposition cost him his job. ... Economic aid to Israel will be reduced. That's what the House Foreign Affairs Committee has been told in an unpublished report, which states, in part, as follows: "While a precise and final determination of the level of aid to Israel cannot be made at this time, it is clear that Israel's continued economic progress will permit the level of aid to be further reduced. In the peak year of 1953, aid to Israel totaled $70,200,000 for economic development and $2,600,000 for technical cooperation. In 1955 development assistance is programmed at $40,000,000, of which $20,000,000 will be on a retainer basis and $15,000,000 is programmed for technical cooperation. It is proposed that the economic aid program be continued on a reduced scale during fiscal 1956. Definite figures will be furnished the Committee at a later date."

Bulletins—Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson, Tex., is optimistically aiming for a July 15 adjournment of Congress, but admits it's a remote likelihood. "But there is no harm in shooting for it," grins Johnson. "By aiming for the middle of July that will improve the chances of winding up early in August." ... Harold Stassen, retiring head of the Foreign Aid Administration, has told congressional leaders that the agency has completed a very promising study of the opportunities for private investment in the Belgian Congo. The survey was made under the direction of William Rand, former president of Monsanto Chemical Co., and according to Stassen, "The door is open for American investments in the Belgian Congo." ... A number of officials of the Truman Administration have been interrogated by a St. Louis grand jury concerning tax matters that produced sensational headlines during a House investigation four years ago. Among those secretly questioned by the grand jury are Edward Foley, former undersecretary of the treasury; Thomas Lynch, former general counsel of the Treasury; T. Lamar Caudle, one-time Assistant Attorney General; William Underhill, another former Assistant Attorney General, and Turner Smith, also a former Assistant Attorney General. ... Rules For Good Health Are Offered

—by H. G. Heller

Common-sense precautions to prevent poliomyelitis at this time of year is the theme for the Safe Guard Your Health campaign of The Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania for June.

"While the Salk vaccine promises to protect from 80 to 90 per cent of those given inoculations, it is likely many communities will not have sufficient amounts of the vaccine to care for any but the younger children and expectant mothers until later in the year," stated Dr. Pascal F. Lucchesi, of Philadelphia, chairman of the Committee on Preventive Medicine and Public Health of the Society.

"It is the belief of many" added Dr. Lucchesi, "that some individuals have carried the virus of polio in their bodies for several weeks without symptoms and have then developed the disease when suddenly chilled, become overtired, or been exposed to some stress situation such as minor surgery."

The suggestions recommended by the Medical Society, especially in the hot months, for the prevention of polio include: Avoid crowds and large public gatherings, keep clean by washing and bathing frequently, do not swim in possible polluted water, keep flies away from food, avoid sudden chilling from going into cold water on hot days, and most importantly, prevent fatigue from over-exertion.

These rules are so simple and devoid of hardship, there should be little difficulty in following them on a fairly rigid basis until such time as the Salk Vaccine program is once more in "high gear."

In fact, even with the Vaccine, they're just as important as without it.

Adequate National Defense Urged By Firemen's Speaker

Four-County Group Dines At Post Home

JUST AS American firemen heed alarms, American citizens must learn to answer the "alarms of troubled times," Wilbur G. Warner, Lehighton postmaster, told Four-County Firemen at their banquet last night.

Warner was the featured speaker at the dinner served in the American Legion Post Home, George N. Kemp Post. He called upon all citizens to "be sure that our country has adequate defense and so build our communities, schools and recreation centers that we will provide the best kind of men to control our country in the days ahead."

Firemen, he said, go to fight fires well equipped. The nation should do the same in its defense against other confagurations, he said.

Similarity Recalled

He likened the fire companies to the history of the country, saying that the founders of this nation had "the vision to see what a wonderful country this could be and, through the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, played the strong lights of balanced control upon our national structure of government so that we might provide for the common defense, domestic tranquility and the promotion of the general welfare."

Volunteer firemen, he said, are closely akin in manner of service to the Minute Men and other unselfish citizens who have answered their nation's call with selfless devotion.

He urged each person present to work for "a strong America that will prevent the conflagration of war throughout the world."

Deceased Honored

At this point the secretary, J. Allison Everitt, announced the names of those who had died during the year. As each name was repeated, Miss Patricia Ann Everitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Everitt, transferred a rose in memory from one vase to another.

Rev. Krauss based his memorial meditation on the 16th chapter of St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians, 13th verse. Death, he said, was inevitable and all should prepare themselves for it. Stand fast in the faith, quit ye like men, he advised.

To be a truly good fireman, one should be all he claims to be, broadminded, public spirited, and live good moral lives. Keep character above reproach, be kind and good, a man among men, he said. Paying tribute to the memory of those who had died, the speaker said they were model citizens whose families faces will not be forgotten. They made many sacrifices for service. They are not dead; they still live in the memory of those who survive, the speaker said.

The service closed with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

Reports Given

The afternoon session was devoted principally to reports. Kline S. Werner gave the treasurer's report and Roland Walker that of the auditors. Secretary Everitt gave his report, also on the three meetings of the executive committee held during the year.

The convention adopted unanimously a resolution submitted by Michael Krell, Lansford, providing for increasing the annual dues of the fire companies in the association from $1.50 to $5 a year.

Other resolutions presented by the committee which also included John I. Correll, of Bangor, and Russell Nevil, of Stroudsburg, commended A. F. Everitt for the memorial program furnished. Rev. Krauss, the high school chorus and participating clergy. Another resolution commended the Stroudsburg Fire Department, borough officials and council and Stroudsburg school district for their cooperation. The final resolution was in memory of the deceased members.

Three Honored With Gifts At Annual Banquet

THREE MEN were honored with gifts of watches at last night's Four-County Firemen's banquet.

Men receiving the gifts were Millard Marsh, retiring president of the Four-County Association; Arch Rundle, chairman of the committee for this year's convention and J. A. Everitt, secretary of the association.

A. F. Everitt, chairman of the executive committee, presented the gifts to Marsh and Everitt, his son. Wilbur G. Wagner, main speaker, presented the watch to Rundle, on behalf of Chemical Co. No. 1.

of the Pennsylvania Fire School, now with the Safety Equipment Co. He served many years in the Elmira, N. Y., paid and volunteer departments of which his father had been chief for many years.

Willing To Sacrifice

The speaker compared two services and stated that both are ready to sacrifice their time and even their lives for the protection of their fellowmen. The speaker was presented by Corvin D. Solt, chief of the Lehighton Fire Dept., chairman of the topic committee.

Rev. Krauss invited the members to participate in the dedication exercises of the new home of Dewey Fire Co., No. 1, Hellertown, July 2 when a parade will take place with special services July 3.

President Marsh announced a special demonstration at the downtown town of the P. P. & L. Co. at 4 p. m., showing ways of handling fires when high power lines are implicated.

Prizes were awarded previous to adjournment. The $10 cash prize went to Anthony Sabatino, Roseto; one quart pyrene extinguisher to Roscoe Schmidt, of Emmaus, and a five-cell flash light to Kenneth W. Mitman, of Northampton.

Banquet Held

The annual banquet was held last night at the American Legion home, East Stroudsburg. There were 265 reservations for the social event also attended by ladies. Frank S. LaBar was master of ceremonies and Wilbur G. Warner, postmaster at Lehighton, the guest speaker.

Chief Marsh presented Mr. LaBar who in turn introduced guests at the head table and the new officers of the organization. The affair opened with the singing of America and prayer by Rev. Krauss.

The program concluded with a floor show.

The annual parade takes place this afternoon at 2 following two blasts by the borough fire whistle. The line of parade including practically 100 marching units, forms in the lower part of town, marches to and through part of East Stroudsburg and returns to Main St. and the Stroudsburg playground where it will be dismissed and refreshments will be served.

Three Cows Killed When Hit; Truck Receives $2,600 Damage

EFFORT—A huge tractor-trailer truck, loaded with coal, hit a herd of cows crossing Route 115 at 6 last night.

Three cows were killed. The truck overturned, spilling its load of coal. Total damages—including value of the dead cows—was about $3,650, Fern Ridge State police said.

According to police the cows belonged to Stanley Pyscher of Effort. Driver of the truck was identified as Edward F. Hines, 34, of 14 W. Broad St., East Stroudsburg.

Police said Hines applied the brakes of the truck when he saw the cows, but the brakes failed to hold fast enough to avoid hitting them. Two Holsteins and a Short-horn cow were killed in the crash. Pyscher placed their value at about $1,050, police reported. Another cow was injured.

The truck turned over on the right side of the highway, spilling coal and injuring Hines slightly on the left leg. Damage to the truck was estimated at about $2,600, police said.

Couple Held In Widespread Store Thefts

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., June 17

—Joseph Zack, 38, an Allentown city laborer, and his wife, Anastasia, 37, were held without bail today, pending further hearing charged with the theft of thousands of dollars in jewelry, silk stockings, cameras, electric trains, luggage, cutlery, electric appliances and tools.

The loot was discovered in the Allentown apartment of the Zacks after the couple had been arrested in Wilkes-Barre early Thursday. Police arrested Zack at the rear of a jewelry store carrying several burglar tools.

His wife was picked up when spotted cruising around the area of the store. A .25 caliber pistol was found in the car's glove compartment and an acetylene torch and tanks of gas in the trunk.

Dist. Atty. M. Jack Morgan of Lehigh County said a raid on the couple's apartment today unearthed a huge cache of jewelry and the other articles. Morgan said hundreds of wedding and engagement rings, dozens of watches and other expensive jewelry were found in the apartment. At latest report police still were taking inventory on the items.

Swim Classes To Start In East Borough

SWIMMING CLASSES for beginners, intermediates and advanced students will begin Monday at 10 a. m. at East Stroudsburg playground pool.

Lewis Hastie, playground director, said last night that classes in junior and senior lifesaving will also be held "as soon as sufficient students have signed up for the classes."

These classes, when they begin, will be held from 6:30 to 8 p. m. So will a class for persons interested in taking an instructors' course, Hastie said.

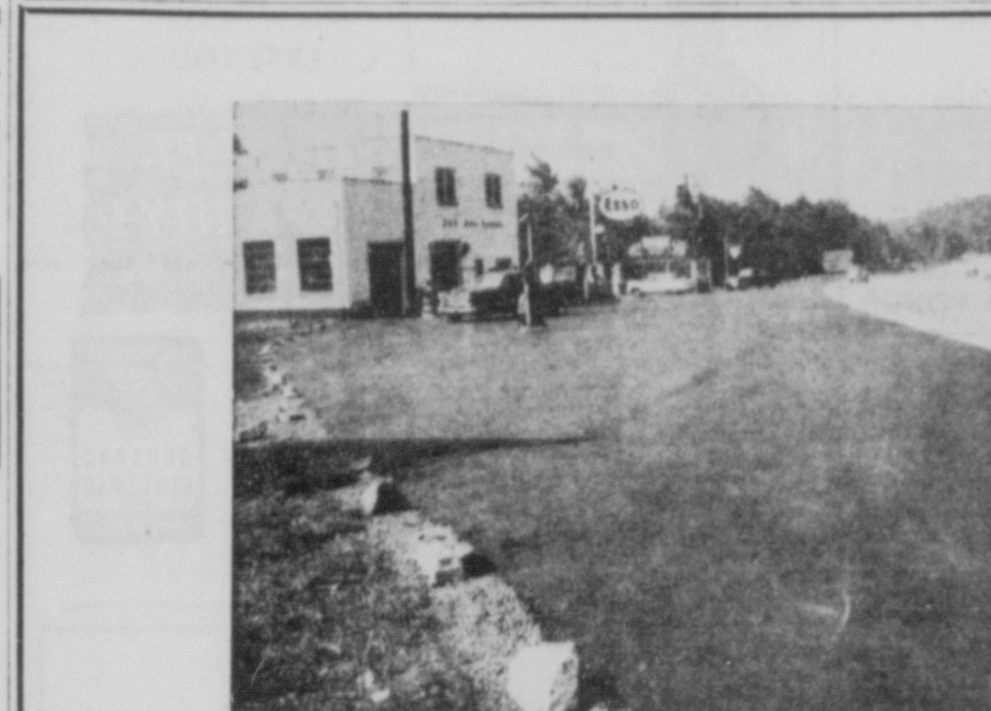

Whether the instructors course will be given depends entirely upon the number of persons signing up, however. To give the course at least five persons are needed, Hastie said.

National Instructor
Once this number has been reached, the playground will contact the local branch of the American Red Cross. The ARC office will, in turn, place a request with national headquarters for an instructor for the course.

The swimming classes for beginners, intermediates and advanced will be held each weekday at 10 a. m. An adult swimming class will be scheduled if enough persons express interest. This would also be held at night.

Bangor High Graduates Class Of 118

BANGOR — Dr. Raymon M. Kistler, president of Beaver College, Jenkintown, presented the commencement address Thursday night for the graduating class of the Bangor Area Joint High School. The program was held in the high school auditorium. Dr. Kistler's address was entitled "The Game of Life." He was presented by Donald B. Keat Sr., superintendent of schools.

Keat also presented the honor students, William Godshalk, college preparatory valedictorian; Wayne Landry, college preparatory salutatorian; Eileen Keenan, business educational valedictorian; and Loretta Ciccarelli, business education salutatorian.

Award of all-round senior based on citizenship, scholarship, extra-curricular activities and popularity presented annually by the Student Council went to Wayne Landry. Selection was made by faculty and student council committee.

The Bausch-Lomb Science Medal and award for the student who has shown the greatest progress in science during their high school career went to Elizabeth Greger.

Subject Awards

Subject awards went to the following individuals: Agriculture, Larry Kunkle; bookkeeping, Loretta Ciccarelli; English, William Godshalk; German, Audrey Brumback; home economics, Maxine Ackerman; industrial arts, Leonard Schiavone; and mathematics, Wayne Landry.

Also, science, Warren Bonney; stenography, Eileen Keenan; social studies, Celia Petrucelli; and type-writing, Lorraine Basso. All of the winners are members of the graduating class.

Reader's Digest awards and awards presented by the State Belt Apparel Contractors Association were awarded the two valedictorians. An award of $10 for outstanding work in industrial arts was given Wayne Smith by Easton Forest 35, Tall Cedars of Lebanon.

A scholarship award of $50 presented by the Graduate Sorority of Bangor to the most deserving senior girl went to Wanda Snoddy. A similar award of $100 presented by BPOE Lodge 1106, Bangor, to the most deserving senior boy went to Roderick Hoppel.

Richard Stinson received a state senatorial scholarship to the University of Pittsburgh through State Senator Joseph J. Yosko. All the awards were made by Superintendent Keat.

Receive Diplomas

Dr. Trevor R. Williams, high school principal, presented the class to receive diplomas to David Stoddard, president of the Bangor Area Joint School District. Stoddard presented each of the 118 graduates with his or her diploma.

Organ selections prior to the processional were played by Robert Miller and Betty Keller, both high school students. The invocation was given by the class president, Pasquale Leraris.

ident, Pasquale Leraris. A vocal solo, "I'll walk with God," was sung by Marlene DeFranco, a member of the graduating class. Warren Bonney, another class member also sang a vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer." Both were accompanied at the organ by Robert Miller. Miss Keller played for the processional and the recessional.

Nuclear Power Tests Planned

LOCK HAVEN, June 17 (AP)—A spokesman for the Curtiss-Wright Aeronautical Corp. indicated today that the aircraft firm will do some research on nuclear power at its recently-purchased Pennsylvania plant site.

"We do have a development contract for work on nuclear power," said William F. Kaiser, assistant public relations director for the firm.

The company two weeks ago purchased and leased 84 square miles of forest and game land in Clearfield, Elk and Cameron counties.

Cresco Station Flag Stop For 'Twilight' Train

THE LACKAWANNA Railroad announced yesterday that passenger train No. 5, known as the "Twilight", will stop at Cresco station on notice to conductor to discharge passengers from Dover and east, and on advance notice to agent to receive passengers for Binghamton and west.

The Twilight runs daily except Saturday and leaves Hoboken at 4:30 p. m. (EDT), arriving at Cresco at 7:02 p. m. The Cresco stop will continue during the period of Daylight Saving Time.

This improved service will provide resorts in the heart of the Poconos with a train from New York and New Jersey suburbs to Cresco at the close of the business day and an early night train from Cresco to Buffalo and west.

Dr. Lawrence R. Furlong, Cresco, will be out of town from June 20th till June 30th inclusive. Adv.

SUNDAY, JUNE 19th, IS FATHER'S DAY

Every Father thinks of Father's Day in terms of his own children and their welfare. That is why so many fathers open individual savings accounts for their children; teaching them the value of planned spending and systematic saving; building self-reliance and leading to a future of financial independence. For this unselfish spirit, we honor the fathers of our community.

Mrs. John Howard Frederick
(R. M. Compson Studios)

Dr. Frederick Is Married In Virginia

Miss Marian Barbour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Barbour, of Danville, Va., and a sister of Mrs. Francis T. Shinn, Stroudsburg, was married to Dr. John Howard Frederick, of Philadelphia, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Frederick, of East Stroudsburg, June 11, at 4:30 o'clock in the West Main Baptist Church, Danville, Va.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Howard W. Lee, pastor of the church, before an altar banked with cytotium ferns, Boston ferns, tropical palms and cathedral candles with cornucopias of mixed summer flowers with pink predominating. The pew markers were of pale pink satin ribbon.

Miss Mary Louise Jones, organist, and Mrs. Eugene Thomas Pryon presented a program of wedding music preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Pryon's selections included "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" by Gounod and "The Lord's Prayer" by Mallot, sung in a benediction. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle fashioned with deep V-neckline and short sleeves. Re-embroidered lace stars centered with pearls and rhinestones were applied on the cloudy tulle skirt caught up in a puff of full length gown of nylon net fell into a cathedral train. The lace stars were repeated on the draped bodice and neckline. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a Juliet cap etched in pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of lily-of-the-valley, Belmont gardenias centered with a white orchid.

Miss Claire Mae Jenkins, of Arkadelphia, Arkansas, was maid of honor. She wore a pastel pink full length gown of nylon net over taffeta with deep ruffle outlined in applique of white lace on the skirt. A deep shrug covered the shoulders. She carried a ballerina bouquet of pelegina carnations and baby's breath.

The other attendants were Mrs. William Elbert Finch, of Danville, Va.; Mrs. Francis Thornton Shinn, of Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Donald Neal Hill, of Decatur, Georgia, and Miss Mary Cahill, of Danville, Va. Their dresses, of azure blue, were identical to the honor attendants. They carried bouquets of pale pink carnations showered with baby's breath and vanity fair roses with matching tiaras.

Dr. John M. Krouse, of Brookton, Mass., was best man. The ushers were Charles S. Barbour, brother of the bride, Dr. Clarkson T. Palmer, of West Chester, Dr. Edward C. Haupt, of Highland Park, Ill., and Dr. John D. Siegfried, of Allentown.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Barbour wore a Dior lace dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Frederick, mother of the bridegroom, wore a rose mauve lace dress with navy accessories. The corsages were white orchids with purple lily.

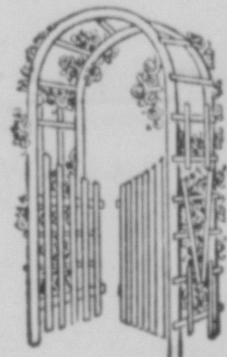

A reception followed at the home of the bride. The bride's table, covered with an Italian handmade open-lace cloth, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and banked with snowy white bells set in a heart outlined with lilies-of-the-valley on one side and three-branch candelabra on the other. Other decorations emphasized the wedding motif.

Mrs. Cadiah F. Meadows, sister of the bride, greeted the guests at the door and introduced them to the receiving line. Mrs. Jack Barbour, sister-in-law of the bride, poured punch and Mrs. George Horace Barr cut the cake. Mrs. James R. Anderson, Misses Nancy and Patricia Evans assist-

Girl Scout Council Hear Of Day Camp

The Girl Scout Day Camp at Camp Lloyd Treble is all set for the opening on June 27, it was announced at the meeting of the Girl Scout Council of Monroe County held at the Girl Scout House on Thursday night.

Mrs. Sonia James, director of this summer's four weeks of camping announced that there were still a few places available for the fourth week scheduled August 1 to August 5.

Mrs. Arlene Scharf, camping chairman, announced that the shelter at the camp had been completed and that everything was ready for the opening of camp. The Council members and their families plan a picnic supper on August 2 at the camp.

Mrs. LeRoy Koehler, county chairman, presided at the meeting. The resignation of Mrs. John Richards as training chairman was accepted.

Four Monroe County pictures will be shown on the 1956 National Girl Scout Calendar, Mrs. James reported. The calendars are being ordered now for local sale. This year for the first time, the troops will retain three cents from each calendar sold.

Plans were also launched for the Senior Round-Up with Mrs. Wendell Wicks and Mrs. George Wakefield as co-chairmen. Mrs. James, chairman of arrangements, and Mrs. Alfred Munson, chairman of the selection committee.

Those present were: Betty and Catherine Depp, Eileen Henry, Sandra Smith, Sally Dunlap, Lois Osburn, Nancy Depue, Charles Depue Jr., Emogene Depue, Mrs. George Koerner, Mrs. Clyde Cramer, Mrs. Charles Depue, Mrs. Bruce Campbell, Mrs. J. Stivers, Mrs. Horace Stiff, Mrs. Edward Besecker, Mrs. Vida E. Sickler, and Rev. C. F. Spangenberg.

The pastor announced that the choir will hold its first annual hymn sing on Sunday night, June 19, at 8 p.m. Augmenting the choir at that time will be Mr. and Mrs. R. Ziegler, of Henryville, and Leonard Rinaldo who will sing a solo in Italian. Mrs. J. Stiver will be organist.

Theme for the morning worship will be "The Name Jesus" to be delivered by the pastor at 9:45 a.m. Sunday school under the supervision of the superintendent, George Koerner will be held at 10:45 a.m. ed with the serving, Mrs. Jack Shields presided over the gift room.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue two-piece dress with navy and white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of George Washington High School and Averett College, Danville, Va. The bridegroom received his B. S. degree in chemistry from Lehigh University and his M. D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

Following a Northern wedding trip, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick will make their home at 4205 Sanson Street, Philadelphia.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Ashton Burrows, Mrs. Annette S. LaBar, of Stroudsburg, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Duke Price, Mrs. Lulu Winn, of Axton, Va.; Rev. and Mrs. R. ## Three-Year-Old Is Honored At Birthday Party

Wooddale—Philip Lester Brush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brush, East Stroudsburg RD 2, will be three years old on Sunday, June 19. A pre-celebration was held Wednesday night at his home so his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller, who could not be present Sunday, would enjoy his birthday with him. Mrs. Miller brought a decorated birthday cake, served with ice cream.

A family party will be held on Sunday afternoon. Philip has a sister, Susan Marie, 10 months old.

ITU Auxiliary Hold Banquet On Flag Day

The Woman's International Auxiliary No. 113 to the ITU held its annual banquet on Tuesday night at the Green View Guest Farm, Saylorsburg, with 32 members in attendance. The invocation was led by Hilda Kitzman, chaplain.

Following a full course turkey and chicken dinner, a short business session was held, with Mary Meixell, newly installed president, presiding. Voting on international officers was held, and members also elected Lucille Diehl as delegate to the International Convention and Mabel Kassner as alternate delegate. The convention will be held in Boston, Mass., August 13 to 18.

Mrs. Meixell presented Emily Severson with a past president's pin. In observance of Flag Day, Emma Knob, secretary-treasurer, read the story of the first flag and how Flag Day came to be observed. Mrs. Meixell also read a Flag Day message written by the late president Woodrow Wilson.

Ruth Smith and Ann Laize were the committee in charge of the banquet. They had the tables decorated with miniature flags at each place, roses and many other early summer flowers and candles.

Too Much Measles — Belmont, N. H. (AP) — Little Jimmie Crowley, 7, is "sick" of the measles anyway you look at it.

Two days after recovery he broke out again.

Diagnosis: German measles.

However, maybe they'll get it covered over by this afternoon so we don't lose a couple of hands in the hole. That's something else we don't need to worry about till it happens, I guess. But since we don't want to give up worrying entirely, let's worry about where to park to watch the parade.

J. Viglione Married To Md. Girl

Bangor—Joseph Viglione, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Viglione, 636 Market St., Bangor, took as his bride, Miss Theresa Olive McDonagh, of LaPlata, Md., where Mr. Viglione is a member of the high school faculty.

They were married on Saturday morning at 10:45 in the Sacred Heart Church, LaPlata, by Rev. William Horrigan, S.J.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and Chantilly lace with a chapel train, and an illusion veil falling from a heart-shaped bonnet. She carried a prayer book with a white orchid.

Mrs. John H. Griffen, of Hughesville, Md., sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a pale yellow crystallette and net gown with matching mitts and bandeau and carried garden flowers, larkspur and baby breath.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Frank R. Posey, Wilmington, Del.; Miss Margaret Brown, LaPlata, wore pale green crystallette and net; the junior bridesmaid, Miss Mary Louise Griffen, Hughesville, and the flower girl, Janice McDonagh, LaPlata, wore lavender crystallette. They all carried garden flowers.

Dr. John H. Griffen, of Hughesville, was best man. Gerald M. Griffen was ringbearer. Serving as ushers were Reed McDonagh, Thomas McDonagh and Robert Matula.

The bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with rose accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore pale blue organza with blue accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Now on a wedding trip through the New England States, Mr. and Mrs. Viglione plan to spend the summer in Bangor, returning to LaPlata, Md., in the Fall.

The bride was graduated from Sacred Heart School in LaPlata, Maryland College, Scranton, and Strayer's College in Washington, D. C. She is employed in the offices of her father's Chevrolet and Oldsmobile business in LaPlata.

The bridegroom was graduated from Bangor High School where he starred in football. He also was a member of the varsity football squad at Moravian College where he received his bachelor of arts degree. He did graduate work at Lehigh University and is now a member of the faculty of LaPlata High School. He taught for several years at a high school in Camden, N. J. In addition to his reputation in football, Mr. Viglione is also an accomplished musician, playing the saxophone in various orchestras in the State Belt area.

Miss Joyce Rutt, member of the local club and chairman of District 8, presided at the installation of new officers, reading the BPW Collect in opening the ceremony. Officers installed included Marie Brown, president; Lulu Harvey, vice president; Frank Walker, recording secretary; and Josephine McGowan, corresponding secretary.

A gift was presented to Miss Rutt for her outstanding work as district chairman.

Jackson Bake Sale

Auxiliary of the Jackson Township Fire Company made plans for a bake sale at their meeting Tuesday night.

The sale will be held at the Penney store in Stroudsburg, June 24, starting at 4 p. m.

"I was wishing you were here yesterday," Edna Brockman told me as we met at the gift wrap center on Friday. "There was plenty of excitement in our Travel Bureau—things popping in every direction."

It all began, Edna explained, when she received a special delivery letter from KLM, Dutch airlines. "Ordinarily I might have laid it aside as advertising matter to be read at a later time," she admitted, "but the idea of it being special delivery attracted me, so I opened it."

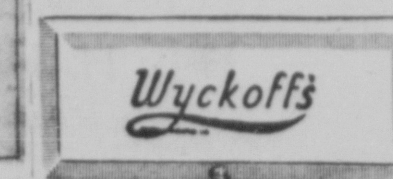

In the letter was the information that she would receive, on Thursday, June 16th, a carrier pigeon being shipped to her by the airline in honor of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, which is returning to this country on Monday after a triumphal tour of Europe. The trip over was made via KLM—and the trip back will, presumably, be made the same way.

True to the preliminary announcement, the pigeon arrived Thursday—a pretty little fellow rigged out in as nice an ensemble of gray-blue feathers as anyone could hope to see, and with a metal tube on his leg. The purpose of this was, of course, to hold the message Edna was expected to send back to the home-coming symphony.

A short time later after his arrival by crate—express—the pigeon was back out of doors with the greetings in his leg. Shorty Widmer was on hand with his trusty camera, and Edna was poised to free the winged messenger. Everyone, as I hear the story, was more excited than the little fellow himself. As Shorty Widmer explains it, "That bird knew beyond a doubt that he had a mission to perform—it was amazing how darned serious he seemed about the whole thing."

Shorty took one picture of the bird in Edna's hands . . . and another just as he released him and he flew upward. Then, as his audience watched breathlessly, the pigeon rested for a few seconds on the roof of the farm store. In that brief interim something clicked in the tiny brain . . . that certain unbelievable, fantastic, wonderful something that tells one of God's smallest creatures just where he is and how he'll get back to the place he hailed from. Suddenly, as though shot from a cannon, the little fellow took back to the air, purposefully and speedily. Without a moment's hesitation he was off, headed straight as a die for Philadelphia.

I suppose homing pigeons are not exactly news . . . they've been around a long time. But to me they are nothing short of miraculous. So once again we chalk down a "where else?" for Wyckoff's. Where else but here would you find a department store with a Travel Bureau sending messages by pigeon? Love that dove! But then everything's always lovely-dovey at Wyckoff's.

Stock List Advances On Late Rally

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—The stock market advanced today in a late rally.

Prices were thoroughly mixed most of the session, and in latter stages of trading one division after another started to march ahead. The rise brought gains of 1 to 2 points frequently. At the same time losses were pared down. They seldom went past a point.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 60 cents at $171.30, another new high. The market in the past 10 sessions has established new highs eight times.

New Industrial High
The industrial component of the average was up $1.20 at a new high of $234.50, railroads were up 20 cents at $137.20 ($1.50 away from the previous high), and utilities were up 20 cents at a new high since 1931 of $73.40.

The list was a trifle more narrow than yesterday with 1,195 individual issues traded of which 546 advanced and 407 declined with 24 new highs and 12 new lows for the year reached.

Volume, too, simmered down to 2,310,000 shares against 2,760,000 yesterday.

Ashland Oil was the day's most active issue up 1/4 at 16 1/2 on 62,900 shares.

Joint Development
On the American Stock Exchange, Molybdenum gained 5 1/2 at 67 1/2 prior to announcement of plans for joint development with Kennecott Copper of a columbian and tantalum ore deposit near Montreal, Kennecott on the big board was off 1/4 at 119 1/2.

Most stocks on the American were higher. Volume was 990,000 shares as compared with 1,040,000 shares traded yesterday.

The bond market was steady while U. S. government issues in the over the counter market were lower.

Leader Declares Choice Is Sales Or Income Tax

PITTSBURGH, June 17 (AP)—Gov. Leader said last night Pennsylvania either must be for the Democratic classified income tax or be "for the Republican sales tax or be from three to four per cent."

"Every opponent of the classified income tax is by necessity an advocate, secret or open, of a three or four per cent sales tax in Pennsylvania," Leader said in an address prepared for a Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner.

Republicans lost the state to Democrats last fall, the governor contended, because they "had created a mess that they were too

J. H. Frederick To Intern In Philadelphia

JOHN HOWARD Frederick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Frederick, 595 North Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, graduated from the School of Medicine of University of Pennsylvania this week.

Dr. Frederick is a graduate of East Stroudsburg High School and received his bachelor of science degree from Lehigh University.

He will intern at Presbyterian Hospital in Philadelphia.

Close Contests Take Place At Chess Session

SEVERAL close contests marked the weekly meeting of the Stroudsburg Chess Club on Thursday night.

Joseph Kushner, the club star, played Harold James and Earl Weiss simultaneously and defeated both men. Kushner's son, Sidney, lost to two veteran members, Weiss and William P. Deering.

A visitor, A. J. Vlossak, of Mount Pocono, engaged James and Weiss. The latter also played two games with Deering.

The club voted to express formal "get-well" sentiments to a member, Edward Burnett, who underwent an appendectomy Wednesday night.

An invitation was extended to chess players in the area and to Summer guests to attend the meetings each Thursday night at 7 at the Pocono Relay office in South Stroudsburg.

Kuplinski Wins Ensign Commission

STANLEY KUPILINSKI, a graduate of Tobyhanna Township High School, was graduated June 3 from U. S. Naval Academy with a bachelor of science degree.

He was commissioned an ensign. Kuplinski, a nephew of George French Sr., of Pocono Summit, is on 60 days leave before he reports in Washington in August.

After graduation from Tobyhanna High, Mr. Kuplinski attended Wyoming Seminary at Kingston for one year.

Widely known for his athletic ability, he served as captain of Tobyhanna High's basketball team in 1950—the year that team won the Monroe County League championship.

DICK TRACY

Strouds Scheduled To Invade Blairstown Field Tomorrow

Radlmen Seek Victory Number Seven

MANAGER FRANK Radler's Strouds, still smarting from their initial loss of the current campaign, will attempt to snap back into the win column when they collide with Blairstown in a Bi-State League baseball game tomorrow.

The game will be played at Blairstown and will get underway at 2:30 p.m.

Radler announced last night that Harold Jacobsen, hard throwing right hander, would do the pitching for the Strouds today.

Starters
The remainder of the visiting lineup will feature John Whitehead in the role of catcher; Danny Eppley, first base; Dick Gray, second base; Paul "Doc" Lim, shortstop; Bill Frear, third base; Dave Nevil, left field; Ron "Super" Phillips, center field; and Randy Morris, right field.

Roseto inflicted the first loss of the current campaign on the league leading Strouds last Wednesday in a two-light contest at Gordon Giffels Field. The Strouds would like to rebound into the win column for the third time this season against Blairstown.

While Blairstown and the Strouds are in action, Portland will be playing at Johnsonville.

Roseto, scheduled for a bye in league play today, will tangle with Saylorburg in an exhibition contest, on the latter's home field.

Redlegs Fall Before Pirates

CINCINNATI, June 17 (AP)—Cincinnati, who twice this week beat mighty Brooklyn, tonight bowed 3-1 to last-place Pittsburgh in the first of a four-game series. Veteran Pirate righthander Max Surkont kept the Reds scoreless until the sixth frame when Gus Bell homered. Frank Thomas homered for the winners. It was Surkont's sixth victory.

COACHES AND COACHING
staffs took over top billing in the local sports world on Thursday, when Stroudsburg revamped its entire staff and East Stroudsburg Junior High named Doug Schoonover as football coach. When the situation in each case is studied and understood, it is quite obvious that both schools have taken a step forward in the improvement of their athletic setups and even more important a giant step in the right direction as far as the development of our young men.

Jerry Stulgaitis, who has always had Stroudsburg High and students of the school uppermost in his mind, stepped down from the head football coaching position at the W. Main St. school to develop the newly formed junior high football project. The Athletic Council, made up of three school board members, met with Earl F. Groner, Stroudsburg Superintendent of Schools, and they were of the unanimous agreement that John Whitehead, an assistant on the current staff, should be recommended for the head football coaching position.

This sudden move caught virtually everybody in Stroudsburg by surprise, but it only goes further to prove that our coaches are sincere in every respect. Stulgaitis, who has been head man in the football setup at Stroudsburg for the past 10 years, recognized the importance of the junior high grid development and after considerable thought, decided to head the program himself. Stulgaitis promptly nominated Whitehead for the head post.

From this angle the switch appears to be the tonic needed to put the Mountaineers back on the football map. Stulgaitis takes a quiet manner and a tremendous wealth of football knowledge into the junior high job. He has the temperament and ability to instill outstanding basic knowledge in the seventh and eighth grade players at the W. Main St. school. If good football players are to be developed at Stroudsburg High, the job must be started correctly and early.

Stulgaitis, former college and pro star, knows every angle of the game and has the outstanding ability to put the lesson across to youngsters. In the future Stroudsburg players graduating from the junior varsity, which will be termed the "B" team in the future, will have as many as three years of experience, rather than one as in the past. This will be the first year for junior high football in Stroudsburg and Stulgaitis and the entire school system is anxious to get the venture off with flying colors.

This column was extremely pleased to see that Stroudsburg High officials had recommended Whitehead to replace Stulgaitis as the head football man at the W. Main St. school. John is one of those remarkable individuals who come down the pike only once in many years. He has a thorough interest in the game and is ready to give of all his time in order to lead a successful team and to teach the students all about the game.

Whitehead is a keen student of the game, a fine coach and can instill a fine spirit in a team. He is a driving force, who stands for no foolishness on the practice field, and has the fire and dash to instill a keen desire to win and to play the game in the correct manner. Whitehead features a solid knowledge in the game of football that is gained by only playing and coaching the sport. Nobody who ever watched John play for East Stroudsburg State Teacher's College will ever question his ability.

The return of Schoonover to the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg area was long overdue. Doug is one of the finest young coaches in the business and should never have been allowed to leave his home area after Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Doug did a tremendous job as basketball and baseball coach at Fairview Township High and there's no reason to believe that the very likeable Schoonover won't continue in the same manner in football at East Stroudsburg Junior High.

Schoonover founded Little League and Babe Ruth League baseball in Stroudsburg and has always been extremely interested in youth. He replaces Les Dimmick as the football mentor at East Stroudsburg Junior High. Les, an extremely capable mentor, didn't want to continue in the coaching ranks any longer and will limit his school work to teaching in the future.

Shawnee Pro Lauds Naming Of 'Let's Play Golf Week'

(Special to The Daily Record)

SHAWNEE-ON-DELAWARE—Someone somewhere has designated this as "Let's Play Golf Week" and, according to Harry Obitz, golf professional at Fred Waring's Shawnee Inn and Country Club:

"It's high time. They have a National Doughnut Week and a National Be Kind to Mother-in-Law Week. Finally we get a week for golf."

Worthington Rolls Over Barrett, 12-1

WORTHINGTON Mower scored in four of his five turns at bat last night to roll to a 12-1 victory over Barrett in a Stroudsburg-Barrett Babe Ruth League game played at Gordon Giffels Field.

Squaw Valley Wins Olympics

PARIS, June 17 (UP)—The International Olympic Committee (IOC) today tapped Squaw Valley, Calif., a young resort which never has been the scene of a major competition, to stage the 1960 winter olympics.

The Squaw Valley bid barely noted out Innsbruck, Austria, in the final vote, which was delayed for hours as the committee debated the question and called back both delegations for further descriptions of their facilities. Unofficial reports said the count in favor of Squaw Valley was 32 to 30.

Long Time
Selection of the California site represents the first time the winter games have been moved out of Europe in 28 years and the second time in history. The 1932 winter Olympics were held at Lake Placid, N. Y., since then Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany, St. Moritz, Switzerland, and Oslo, Norway, have had the honor.

All boys of Stroudsburg, within the Little League age limit, are eligible to play in this circuit, providing they aren't playing in the regular Little League.

Minor League Opens Tuesday
SAM WELLS, director of Stroudsburg Playground, announced last night that the Stroudsburg Little Minor League will hold its first session next Tuesday, at the playground.

After Tuesday's opening the Minor League will operate Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week.

Mahlon Serfass will assist Wells in running the league, in conjunction with the regular Stroudsburg Little League.

Phillies Hang 14th Setback On Rush

CHICAGO, June 17 (UP)—Stan Lopata smashed a homer on a 3-2 pitch with two out in the ninth and Curt Simmons finished for the first time this season to give the Philadelphia Phils a 3-2 victory over the second-place Chicago Cubs today.

The loser was big Bob Rush, who suffered his 14th straight defeat from the Phils. Rush last defeated the Phils June 5, 1951.

Fourth Win
Simmons, notching his fourth triumph against two losses, scattered eight hits, including Gene Baker's bases-empty homer which tied the score at 2-2 in the sixth.

Glen Brook Teams Among Low Qualifiers

GLEN BROOK Country Club was well represented among the low qualifiers for the Lehigh Valley Golf Association's Best Ball of Partners Tournament scheduled to open at Glen Brook today.

John Fish and Bill Nixon teamed for a 71, as did Harold Storm and August "Augie" Lockwitch to pace the local entries.

In Line
Mitchell "Jiggs" Metzgar and Frank Radler combined for a 72, while Bill Rusk and Ralph "Pike" Fredericks came up with a 74 and Dave Muffley and Jim Malazzo carded a 78.

Leo Heller, formerly of East Stroudsburg, teamed with Ed McGinley to win medalist honors with a 70, on rounds of 37 and 33.

The actual tournament, to be held today and tomorrow, will feature 36 holes on each date.

In addition to Glen Brook, other clubs represented in yesterday's qualifying round were Green Pond, Harker's Hollow, Allentown Municipal, Brookside, Bethlehem Steel, Berkleigh and Mahoning Valley.

Bushkill To Practice
BUSHKILL — Bushkill's entry in the Pocono Mountains Baseball League will practice here today at 6 p. m.

Saylorsburg To Present Special Doubleheader As Pocono Mountains League Resumes Race

SAYLORSBURG WILL present another of its special doubleheaders to highlight tomorrow's activity in the Pocono Mountains Baseball League. All regular circuit clashes are scheduled to get underway at 2 p. m.

League leading Saylorsburg will collide with Moorestown in the opening contest tomorrow, the regular league game, and then will play host to Roseto in an exhibition encounter. The second tilt will get underway at approximately 4:15 p. m.

Roseto is the number two team in the current standings of the Bi-State League and has an open date at its own circuit tomorrow.

Bob Bonser, Ralph "Peannis" Moyer and Gil Overpeck will be available for pitching duty for the Lakers tomorrow.

The remainder of the Saylorsburg lineup will feature Bill Bonser in the role of catcher; Dick Schaller, first base; Jack Newell, second base; Lloyd Brong, shortstop; Jack Sommers, third base; Tom Blake, left field; Don Sweda, center field, and George Hill, right field.

Another major game on tomorrow's agenda is the one that will pit Lake Harmony and Barrett, currently tied for second place, against each other on the latter's home field in Canadensis.

Kunkletown, anxious to get back into the middle of the pennant scrap, will battle Bushkill, at Bushkill, while Annlimink and Reiders tangle on the Reiders field.

West End A. C. and Tannersville are on the agenda on the latter's home field. Each game will begin sharply at 2 p. m.

Tobyhanna To Entertain Gouldsboro Squad

TOBYHANNA—Tobyhanna will try to regain its winning touch in the Pocono Mountains Baseball Association tomorrow when the charges of Manager Frank "Candy" Dailey play host to a strong Gouldsboro contingent.

The game will be played at the Coolbaugh High field at 2:30 p. m.

In Race
Both Tobyhanna and Gouldsboro are very much in the Pocono Mountains Association pennant fight at the present time.

League leading Moscow will play at Hamlin tomorrow, while Delville and wireless Mount Cobb clash on the latter's home field.

The Pocono Mountains Association features three games every Sunday, with the cooperation of the weatherman.

Ruth Ebling In Contest For Crown

MISS RUTH Amelia Ebling of Buck Hill Falls, is the latest entry in the "Miss Pocono Mountains" contest, an official preliminary of the Miss America Pageant which gives a $5,000 scholarship to the winner of Miss America title.

Miss Ebling is an employee of the Inn at Buck Hill Falls. She graduated from the Grier High School and Centenary Junior College, Hackettstown, N. J. Her ambition, if she should win the scholarship, is to continue her studies at University of California.

When the local pageant is staged June 24 at Skyline Inn, Ruth will perform in a humorous monologue called "The Story of the Opera," by Nancy Hamilton. She will be costumed for the act, changing to formal wear for the finale.

Active In Players
A member of the Buck Hill Players for eight years, Ruth has taken part in a dozen plays or so; she likes to play tennis and golf and especially good at water-skiing. She is a member of the Canadensis Methodist Church choir and counselor for the Youth Fellowship there. She is five feet, five inches tall, weighs 124 pounds, has light brown hair, blue eyes, fair complexion.

The local pageant for the selection of "Miss Pocono Mountains" is being sponsored by the Pocono Mountains magazine in conjunction with the staging committee of Skyline Inn headed by Edward C. Jenkins, general manager and Mrs. Virginia Craig, social director. There will be a highlighted attraction in addition to the pageant when "Miss Pennsylvania 1955" (Barbara Sue Nager of Philadelphia) crowns the local winner of the "Miss Pocono Mountains" title. Miss Nager, who won the title of Miss Pennsylvania last fall took part in the national finals and was a runner-up in the pageant in Atlantic City at that time. She will reign as "Miss Pennsylvania" until the 1956 pageant.

Dr. W. R. Erickson will be away from his office June 15 to 20, inclusive.—Adv.

Accused Thief Blames Impulse

PITTSBURGH, June 17 (AP)—A man grabbed a folder containing $16,000 in cash and checks from a messenger today. Captured shortly afterwards, he told police he "had an impulse to do it."

Michael Porro, 29, of the East Liberty section was quoted by police as adding:

"I wanted to travel somewhere. I just wanted to get away. That's why I took the money."

He was held on a robbery charge.

Fire Sweeps Old Seaport

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 17 (AP)—Fire laid waste the sprawling tidewater terminals today in one of the worst fires this old seaport has known.

Two policemen and one dock employee may have been trapped in one falling building.

The fire, which started on the channel end of the terminals along the Cooper River, broke out shortly before 11 a.m. and within a matter of minutes, whipped by a strong northeast wind, had engulfed the south terminal, one of three forming the facility.

In half an hour the north terminal was ablaze and the south terminal had collapsed. Firemen retreated across the street to save the main offices of the South Carolina Ports Authority, the Palmetto Shipping Co., and the Waterman Shipping Co., which caught fire from flying brands.
